

ITASCA EVALUATION

18 individuals participated in the Itasca Climate Dialogue. Highlights from their responses to pre- and post-surveys are included below.

BEFORE

6% say they are “extremely sure” climate change is happening. 56% are at least “very sure” climate change is happening.

AFTER

56% say they are “extremely sure” climate change is happening. 94% are at least “very sure” climate change is happening.

On a scale from 1 to 5, with 1 representing “extremely unlikely” and 5 representing “extremely likely,” how likely do you think it is that the following will happen?

The number of extreme weather events in Itasca county will increase in the coming years

Average = 3.6

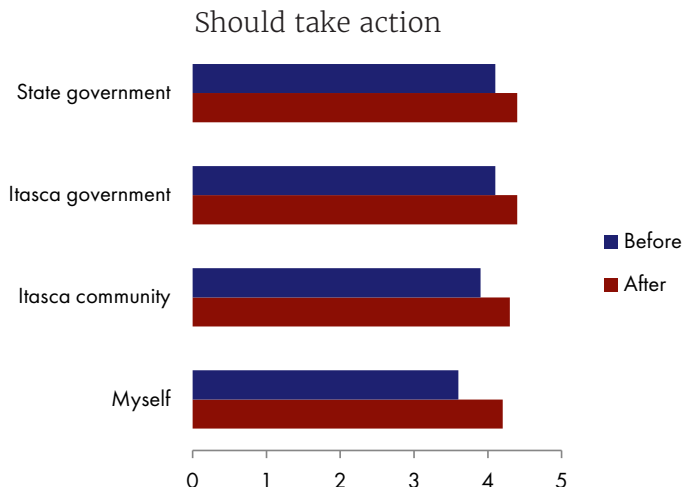

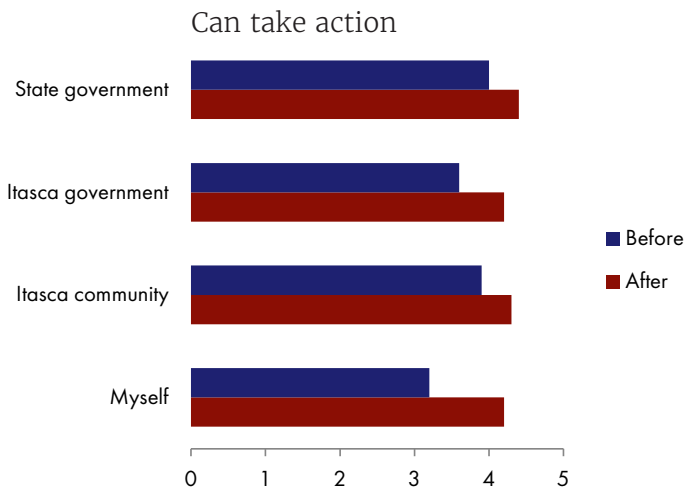

Average = 4.2

Climate patterns in Itasca County will experience major shifts in the coming years

Average = 3.6

Average = 4.2

On a scale from 1 to 5, with 1 representing “strongly disagree” and 5 representing “strongly agree,” do you agree the following entities can and should take action to address the risks created by extreme weather and shifting climate patterns?

13/18 participants agreed to share their contact information with local groups working to address the risks created by extreme weather and shifting climate patterns.